

Walking Tour: The Secrets of Sicily

8 days / 7 nights in the enchanting island of Sicily

Code tour: ITSIC06W

Sicily offers all the ingredients for a successful walking holiday: blue sea, endless beaches, unexpected nature, delicious fresh fish dishes, excellent wines and lots of culture.

This walking tour starts in Trapani, situated on Sicily's northeastern coastline, is built on the sea and at the foot of Mount Erice. The city has a rich history and fascinating culture, with a very beautiful and interesting Baroque historic center. The many civilizations that have dominated the city and the different architectural styles through the centuries have all left their mark in the historic center of the city. From Trapani you visit the medieval city of Erice, situated on a 750 meters high mountain, from which you will see the beautiful Salt pans of the area and the town of Trapani. Erice has two Castles, one from the period of the Saracens and one from the domination of the Normans. Trapani is also an excellent base to make a tour on Monte Cofano. The walking route is fantastic, a mix of coastal paths and mountain trails. From Trapani parting the boats for the Aegadi Islands. These you will reach the fabulous Aegadi Islands and Marettimo, the most mountainous of the three islands, a paradise for walkers: paths, walking trails on the cliffs that wind between fragrant brooms and purple cistus, Saracen fortresses, Roman villas and Coral Sea caves. Scopello is a charming fishermen's village where once was a big tunary. You can visit the museum in the Natural reserve, where the history of the tunary is told. At the end, you will do a magnificent walk through the Zingaro Natural reserves, with lovely coves and a coastal walking trail from which you will admire beautiful sea views.
