A walk through elegance: a prosecco stroll
A 6 day / 5 nights walking holiday

Code tour: ITVEN01W

Embark on an unforgettable journey through the rolling landscapes of the Prosecco region, nestled in the heart of the province of Treviso, northern Italy. This scenic route begins and ends in Conegliano and winds its way through charming towns and villages such as Tarzo, Follina, Valdobbiadene, Soligo, and Susegana. It is the perfect way to discover the world-famous Prosecco DOCG in its natural, picturesque setting.

The Prosecco hills offer a serene escape from the everyday hustle, inviting travelers to immerse themselves in nature, explore vast vineyards, and visit historic wine cellars. Along the way, you'll encounter medieval abbeys, centuries-old fortresses, and quaint villages that seem straight out of a storybook. Every stop along this route offers breathtaking views and a glimpse into the region's rich history and culture.

The sparkling white wine Prosecco, known and exported worldwide, is produced here in remarkable quantities—approximately 90 million bottles per year. The combination of fertile soil, traditional winemaking expertise, and stunning landscapes has earned this area the prestigious recognition of being a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2019.
Beyond wine, this tour provides a deep dive into local heritage. Discover historical landmarks such as the Abbey of Follina, the Castle of Susegana, and the charming villages of Tarzo, Soligo, and Valdobbiadene, each with its own unique stories and traditions.

Whether you're a wine enthusiast, a nature lover, or simply seeking a magical Italian escape, this walking tour through the Prosecco hills offers an authentic and rejuvenating experience. Enjoy panoramic views, taste exceptional local wines, and lose yourself in the timeless charm of this extraordinary region.
